

PRESS RELEASE

Tuesday, April 14, 2009
10.00hrs

The Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission (GSOC) can confirm the identity of the man who died following a road traffic incident on the Clontarf Road, in Dublin on Sunday morning as Jack Whelan, a local man, who was aged 23.

The investigation into the circumstances of the incident is being continued by GSOC. The matter was referred to GSOC under s.102 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005 as a vehicle involved in the incident was driven by an off-duty Garda member.

For any further details please contact Graham Doyle 086-1278301

ENDS