

Press Release

Sunday, 2 March, 2008

13.45hrs

The Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission has given control of the investigation into a fatal road traffic incident on the Naas Road this morning back to the Garda Síochána. The Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission is satisfied that no misconduct has been disclosed on the part of the garda involved. This decision follows a technical and forensic examination of the scene as well as independent witness accounts.

Further queries should be directed to the Garda Press Office.
